

HOW DO WE MEET THE MEDICATION SAFETY STANDARD?

MEDICAL

NURSING

PHARMACY

Registration and credentials are current	Registration and credentials are current	Registration and credentials are current
Know where to access policies, procedures and guidelines	Know where to access policies, procedures and guidelines	Know where to access policies, procedures and guidelines
Obtain Best Possible Medication History (BPMH)	Check for patient's allergy and ADR history prior to administering medicines	Obtain Best Possible Medication History (BPMH)
Ensure patient's allergy and ADR status is displayed on the banner paper chart	Label injectable medicines, fluids and lines according to national recommendations	Ensure patient's allergy and ADR status is displayed on the banner paper chart
Ensure VTE risk is documented	Participate in medication safety audits as required or requested	Know how to involve patients in medication management
Provide information to patients about medicines prescribed and check patient's understanding	Know your role in ensuring medicines are stored securely and safely in your area of practice	Provide information to patients about medicines prescribed and check patient's understanding
Provide a list of current medicines including reasons for changes to receiving clinician during handover and/or discharge	Are you using Medication Administration Wizard (MAW) to support safe use of medicines?	Provide a list of current medicines including reasons for changes to receiving clinician during handover and/or discharge
Report ADR to TGA and Riskman	Know how to involve patients in medication management	Report ADR to TGA and Riskman
Know how to report a medication error or incident on Riskman	Know how to report a medication error or incident on Riskman	Know how to report a medication error or incident on Riskman
Know how to raise a concern about medication management in your practice area	Know how to access and discuss medication related incident and audit data relevant to your practice area	Know how to access and discuss medication related incident and audit data relevant to your practice area
Know the high risk medicines (APINCH) and additional steps required for prescribing these	Know the high risk medicines (APINCH) and additional steps required for prescribing these	Know the high risk medicines (APINCH) and additional steps required for prescribing these
Know how you contribute to medication safety initiatives	Know how you contribute to medication safety initiatives	Know how you contribute to medication safety initiatives